PUBLIC SAFETY FAIR

Residents, businesses, youth and families are invited to join the Surrey RCMP at our Public Safety Fair. Learn about our collaborative prevention and intervention programs with local partners, and how you can get involved in public safety. You'll also get a sneak peek of two new presentations that talk about gang involvement and ways of building resiliency in youth.

Saturday, November 2nd
10:00 am – 2:00 pm
École Salish Secondary School
7278 184th Street, Surrey

The Public Safety Fair will feature a number of family-friendly activities including:

- Free barbecue prepared by Surrey RCMP police officers and staff (11:00 am - 1:00 pm).
- Free on-site shredding of your personal documents with Super Save Shredding (10:00 am – 2:00 pm). Donations for the Surrey Food Bank are welcome.
- Mini-presentations of the new Shattering the Image module, and the brand new Project Lavender for youth (launching soon).
- Information on Surrey RCMP programs and services including gang prevention, youth services, community programs, Victim Services, property/auto crime, and more.
- Mini-Blue fitness sessions for children and youth facilitated by police officers.

Community partners will also be on hand to demonstrate the collaborative programming that has been designed to foster a holistic approach to safety in Surrey. The following organizations will have information booths at the Public Safety Fair:

- Safe Schools / School District 36 / Welcome Centre
- Crime Stoppers
- Surrey Anti-Gang Family Empowerment (SAFE) program partners
- Vision Zero Surrey
- Surrey Fire Service
- Surrey Parks, Recreation & Culture
- Big Brothers of Greater Vancouver
- Combined Forces Special Enforcement Unit (CFSEU-BC)
- Fleetwood Business Improvement Association
- Downtown Surrey Business Improvement Association
- Lookout Housing & Health Society
- Surrey Urban Mission Society
- Surrey Bylaws Enforcement
- Surrey Crime Prevention Society
- Phoenix Society
