

Dear Parents,

Riverdale's 2012 volleyball season is about to begin! It looks to be an exciting year with many opportunities for practicing and games (please see the schedule on the back). A final play day will be scheduled during the last week of November.

Your son/daughter has expressed interest in participating on a Riverdale volleyball team. Please sign and return the volleyball permission form before Monday, October 15th, 2012. Also, please be aware of the following criteria to remain on a Riverdale volleyball team:

- Respect for coaches, teammates, and other teams.
- Positive attitude and willingness to try what is asked of the child.
- Participation in all practices and games, unless the coach is informed of the reason prior to the practice or game.
- Attending all practices on time, dressed in proper athletic attire, with a water bottle.

Thank you,

Mr. So, Mrs. Marasa, Mr. Hopps, and Mlle. Maharaj
