STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Rationale:

At Coyote Creek it is essential that all students and staff work together in a safe, caring and supportive learning and teaching environment where all people are treated with tolerance, dignity and respect. Those who come to our school and do not conduct themselves in a way that maintains this working environment will be constructively supported to learn how to do so, as well as receive age appropriate, escalating consequences for not conducting themselves in a way that maintains our expected working environment.
