Required Electives 12

Students in the French Immersion program are REQUIRED to select at least TWO additional grade 12 level courses to satisfy graduation requirements.

Open Electives (Grades 10 - 12)

Choose enough courses from the elective areas to build a full load of 8 courses. Electives from grade 10, 11 and 12 will be available on the MyEd On-line course selection site.

Study Period (Grade 12 Students may select one study period for their grade 12 year)

- Study – You may choose one study for your grade 12 year

Alternates – Grade 12 (Choose two)

Choose 2 Alternate Courses from the Courses listed on the reverse of this sheet. Counsellors will refer to these Alternate choices if your first choices are not available.

Notes:

All students are expected to take on a full course load (8 courses, or 9 courses if requesting Jazz Band) If you are planning to take a course online or at summer school, please select a full course load, and see your counsellor once you verify your registration. You will then be required to request alternate courses.

Counselors are available for consultation by appointment from February 6 to 21. Students must have completed their on-line course requests before booking an appointment.

Getting Help:

Lunchtime support sessions for completing course requests will be announced. How-To guides and other information are available at: <http://www.surreyschools.ca/schools/earlmarriott/About/Courses>
