Skills Exploration 10

July 3-26, 2019 8:30 am – 12:57pm

Location Princess Margaret Secondary 12870 72 Avenue

Skills Exploration 10 will give students entering grade 10 the opportunity to experience a hands-on introduction to the construction trades of carpentry, electrical, plumbing and welding. Students will learn essential skills such as how to measure, cut, wire, build and weld; skills and attitudes needed for success in school and the workplace; benefits of Apprenticeship and Surrey District Partnership Programs, and career-related opportunities.

This is a very labour intensive program. Students must be able to work independently on a job-site environment with minimum one-on-one instruction.

Provincial Exams

Thursday August 8, 2019

- English 12

Friday August 9, 2019

- Communications 12

All exams: 9:00 am – 11:00 am
More information and the location of the exams will be provided after classes start.
